

DONOR BILL OF RIGHTS

Philanthropy is based on voluntary action for the common good. It is a tradition of giving and sharing that is primary to improving the quality of life and positive outcomes for children, families and the community. To assure that philanthropy through The Peacemaker Program, Inc. merits the respect and trust of the general public and that donors and potential donors may have full confidence in The Peacemaker Program, Inc., which they are asked to support, we declare that all donors have the following rights:

- © To be informed of the mission of The Peacemaker Program, Inc. in the way that we intend to use donated resources, and of our capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purpose.
- © To be informed of the identity of those serving on the Board of Directors and to expect the Board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.
- © To have access to The Peacemaker Program, Inc.'s most recent financial statements.
- © To be assured that all gifts will be used for the purposes for which they are given.
- © To receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.
- © To be assured that information about all donations is handled with confidentiality and respect to the extent provided by law.
- © To expect that all relationships with individuals representing The Peacemaker Program, Inc. will be professional in nature.
- © To be informed whether those seeking donations are volunteers, employees of The Peacemaker Program, Inc. or hired solicitors.
- © To have the opportunity for their names to be deleted from mailing lists that The Peacemaker Program, Inc. intends to share. At this time, we do not share our mailing lists.
- © To feel free to ask questions when making a donation and to receive prompt, truthful and forthright answers.